

April 2002

Dear Authors,

To promote communications between the interested groups, we encourage submissions of posters to AMEN. By posters, we mean unpublished papers, mathematics articles, books, etc. which meet a set of minimal academic requirements, and are not against the will of any other parties for circulation. We prefer posters written in English and prepared in LATEX. There is no page limits to posters. No restriction will be imposed on the competency of the contributors and there is no charge for posters.

After a poster is received, if it complies with the above requirements, we will post it in the PDF, DVI or PS format. Full-text access to all posters is available for free from our mirror sites all over the world so as to reach the widest possible audiences. Indeed, starting from January 1 of 2002, our main Web site is operating at <http://www.math.nthu.edu.tw/~amen/>. Exact mirror sites have been established at <http://www.math.nsysu.edu.tw/~amen/> with the kind permission of the mathematics department of National Sun Yat-sen University of Taiwan; at <http://cienciasexactas.ulagos.cl/amen/> with the kind permission of the mathematics department of the University of Los Lagos of Chile; at <http://ims.jlu.edu.cn/journals/amen> with the kind permission of the mathematics department of the Jilin University of China; and at <http://www.fjnu.edu.cn/math/> with the kind permission of the mathematics department of the Fujian Teacher's University of China. The contents of our Web site are also available at <http://www.emis.de/journals/> with the kind permission of the European Mathematical Society, which also has over 45 mirror sites in various cities of the world.

An author can decide when to withdraw his poster. As a matter of fact, as soon as the copyright has been transferred to a third party, the author is responsible for informing AMEN such a transfer so that his poster can be withdrawn from free access. Also, AMEN reserves the right to withdrawn any poster at any time.

Thank you for submitting your posters to AMEN. We hope you can make the best of our free services.

Sincerely,
Sui Sun Cheng
Editor in Chief
